RICHARD C. HOTTELET OF CBS NEWS
SPEAKS ON VIETNAM AT UM JULY 11

MISSOULA---

Richard C. Hottelet, a well known Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) news commentator who was assigned to Vietnam during the crucial summer months of 1966, will speak at the University of Montana, Missoula, July 11.

Hottelet's lecture, which is entitled "Report on Vietnam," will be at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. The lecture, open to the public without charge, is part of the UM Summer Session program at the University.

Hottelet served as a news correspondent in Bonn, Germany, for CBS from 1951-56. Since 1960 he has been assigned to cover the United Nations sessions for CBS and has been present at such crises as the struggles over Cuba, the Congo, Vietnam and the Arab-Israeli dispute.

During World War II Hottelet flew with the 9th Air Force Bomber Squadron that attacked Utah Beach minutes before H-Hour and emerged with the first report of the sea-borne invasion of Normandy. He later covered the Battle of the Bulge and the Rhine crossing.

Hottelet graduated from Brooklyn College in New York and then went to the University of Berlin in 1937 as a graduate student. He joined the United Press Bureau there and in 1944 went to work for CBS in London.

Hottelet has a Monday-through-Friday news program broadcast from New York City at noon and a Sunday news broadcast on the CBS radio network. His reports are seen on nation-wide CBS television news features and in the "CBS Reports" series.

While in Vietnam Hottelet talked with military and political leaders and spent much of the time living with GIs in combat areas. He became well acquainted with the people of Vietnam, their problems and how they are solving them.
